INTRODUCTION

In the beginning, God created the heavens and earth and all therein - and it was good. God created man to be in relationship with Him, to continually receive God's blessings, and take care of all of God's creation. Man was created to flourish as he loved upward and outward - to love God and His creation, completely. (Gen. 2)

But, man chose to love inwardly, selfishly disobeying the command and design of God. This disobedience is called sin and it has impacted all generations. Sin broke our communion with God, resulting in pain, toil, hardship, and death. (Gen. 3)

Though man rejected God, God still pursued man. God continued calling people to himself by revealing himself through the law, the prophets, and the writings - until the fullness of time had come.

In the greatest display of love and pursuit ever known God came down to man. He sent his own Son to show us how we ought to live and love. He, Jesus Christ, lived and loved perfectly. He continuously obeyed God's command and design, loving God and creation completely. (Matt. 22:37)

However, an issue still remained. Man's sin required a holy sacrifice. The Bible teaches that sacrifice is required for the covering of sin, for God bears wrathful judgment against sin. (Lev. 26) For generations men participated in the covenant through the sacrificial system through which God demonstrated grace and patience to his people. This was man's attempt to appeal to God by faith. It was also God's stark reminder that sin against God forfeits life.

When the fullness of time had come God provided the perfect substitute - the one who lived and loved perfectly; his own son. All along, God had been signaling that he would do something radical. That he would defeat sin and death. Little did people expect that God's battle against sin would place his Son's life on the line, as he would stand between God's people and judgment. The godly would stand in the place of the ungodly as the perfect sacrifice. God's Son would die the death that sinner's deserved. Sinners would receive the righteousness that Christ achieved.

Death did not get the final word, however. Jesus miraculously arose from the dead after three days signaling that the sin and death that reigned for so long had been defeated. The curse of generations had been reversed through the first-born of God.

Hope was here. Light had broken into darkness. All things were being made new. And, all things will be made new. Death will cease and life will reign. Man can and will flourish under the authority and unhindered worship of God by faith in Christ.

The purpose of this worship guide is to remind us of this story and continually call us back to our purpose - to love upward and outward, to love God and His creation. We believe the Lord will use personal, family, and corporate rhythms of reading scripture, singing scripture, praying scripture, and memorizing scripture to stir our affections towards loving God. Then, the result of loving God is loving what God loves - his people.

ONE

READ

When someone is saved by grace through faith in Jesus, he or she is drawn to seek to know Jesus. Jesus says that all of Scripture is about Himself; therefore, to know Jesus deeply we must know Scripture. (John 5:39)

TIP

The best way to read scripture is to (1) understand what the author intended to say when it was written ("exegesis"), (2) consider the meaning across the biblical narrative in light of Jesus Christ ("theological reflection"), and then (3) apply it to your life ("today").²

Read scripture during the corporate gathering, personal devotion and family worship. Following the passages provided in this guide will collectively focus our hearts and minds on the same truths.

TWO

SING

Singing is a discipline of proclaiming gospel truths in song. In Scripture, we are told to sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to one another and to God. (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16)¹

TIP

Sing theologically rich hymns full of scriptural truths from “Hymns of Grace” hymnal, which can be purchased at HymnsOfGrace.com.

Also, “follow” the Rhythms playlist on Spotify containing all the hymns at ChristCovenant.com/playlists or scan the QR code below.

THREE

PRAY

Prayer is communication with God. Prayer should entail adoration of God, confession of sin, thanksgiving for how God has provided, and supplication for the needs of self and others. God wants us to pray as a demonstration of our trust in the sovereign care of God. Prayer is participation in our fellowship with God and plays an important role in kingdom advancement.¹

TIP

Pray the “Psalms of the day” by taking the 150 psalms and dividing them by thirty days. Since most months have at least thirty days, the results is having five Psalms per day to read. Then, choose a verse of Scripture to use to guide your prayers. Once you cannot think of anything else to pray continue to the next verse. The fruit of this exercise is allowing God’s inspired words to guide the thoughts and words prayed back to Him.³

The page features decorative wavy lines in the top right and bottom left corners, consisting of multiple parallel, curved lines that create a sense of movement and depth. The lines are light gray and fade into the white background.

FOUR

MEMORIZE

Memorizing Scripture is commanded and modeled in the Bible. In Colossians 3:16, Paul writes, "Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly..." This idea is not new. Instead, we see this throughout the whole Bible:

Deuteronomy 6:6

These commandments that I give you today are to be upon your hearts.

Joshua 1:8

Do not let this Book of the Law depart from your mouth; meditate on it day and night

Psalm 119:11

I have hidden your word in my heart that I might not sin against you.

Proverbs 7:1

My son, keep my words and store up my commands within you.

John 15:7

If you remain in me and my words remain in you ask whatever you wish, and it will be given you

TIP

1. Pick a passage
2. Memorize one new verse
3. Recite memorized verses perfectly ten times
4. Add 1 new verse each day & recite perfectly 10 times

ANNUAL BIBLE READING PLAN

The Bible reading plan in the next few pages allows you to read the entire Bible (or just the New Testament) in one year while only reading five times a week. Five readings a week gives room to catch up or take a needed day off, and makes daily Bible reading practical and do-able. Many people have successfully reached their goal of regular Bible reading using this schedule. Further, reading the Bible in chronological order (even the Psalms have been placed chronologically when possible) aids understanding of the Bible story, and helps the reader to look forward to reading God's Word.

Always do the reading in the order it appears on the schedule. So, for example, if a reading from Chronicles appears before Kings in that day's reading, read from Chronicles first. Check off each day's reading. You will be amazed at how soon you are deep into the year and still reading your Bible regularly! God's blessings rest with those who will read, understand, and live by His Word. May this guide help you to that noble end. "Thy word is a lamp to my feet, and a light to my path" (Psalms 119:105).
